City Hospice
Caring for Cardiff

Welcome and thank you

Hello and welcome to the twelfth City Hospice Art Auction

I'd like to thank all of the artists who have donated pieces of artwork to our auction. They come from across Wales and the UK and we are so grateful for your support.

As many of you know, City Hospice has been a part of the Cardiff community for the past 39 years. We provide medical, nursing and end-of-life care to patients in their own homes and support to their families. Events like this one go towards helping us to raise the £2.6m needed to continue providing this vital service.

We would like to thank you for supporting Cardiff's leading palliative care charity and for allowing us to keep helping those patients and families who need us the most.

We hope you enjoy our Art Auction and the fantastic artwork that has been donated.

Liz Booyse,
Chief Executive

Lavender Fields, Provence by Naomi Tydeman

How the auction works

We are delighted that we can now return to holding the charity art auction as a live event. However, following the success of the last few auctions, we will also be going live over the internet with Rogers Jones Auctioneers

They have very kindly agreed, not only to host the event, but they will donate the 15% Buyers Premium back to City Hospice, meaning the charity will receive every penny that this auction makes.
They will also host the live event with viewing starting at 6.30pm and the auction starting at 7.30pm. We look forward to welcoming you with a free sparkling reception at the Rogers Jones auction house, just off Penarth Rd

This catalogue shows the fantastic art we have on offer, but there are also different pictures showing frames, etc of each lot on the www.rogersjones.co.uk website. Also, if you would like to get an even better view of the art, you can arrange, by appointment only, to view the art in person at Roger Jones auctioneers from Thursday 1st December. Call them on 02920 708125.

The auction will start at 7.30pm on Wednesday 7th December.

On the opposite page, there is a simple step by step guide to logging on for an account with Rogers Jones Auctioneers, which, on the night, will show the auctioneer, Ben Rogers Jones in video going through each lot.

Bidding is quite simple, by the click of a button. Under the item on sale will be two boxes, one showing the current price of the item and the other showing what the auctioneer is now asking……..if you are willing to pay that asking price, you click on it.
The picture opposite shows what your computer screen will look like.

After the event, each lot can be collected from City Hospice or the charity can deliver to the Cardiff area for a £10 charge. Shipping and postage to other parts of the country (£15) or internationally can be arranged at cost.

How to register to bid;

City Hospice
Caring for Cardiff

City Hospice is a registered charity at the heart of Cardiff, providing specialist medical, nursing and end of life care to patients in their own homes.

We help people with life-limiting illnesses such as dementia, cancer, Motor Neurone Disease (MND) and Chronic Obstructive Pulmonary Disease (COPD). We provide specialist palliative care to these people in their own homes as well as offering counselling (adults and children), welfare benefits advice and day centres with a range of activities.

Built on the goodwill of local people, City Hospice, has been a part of the local community for the last 37 years. We changed our name from ‘George Thomas Hospice Care’ to ‘City Hospice’ in August 2017.

We are the only specialist palliative care provider for the city of Cardiff and we need to raise a total of £2m to keep providing our specialist services.

Your support is essential. By coming along to our event, you’re helping us to continue giving our patients the best quality of life and are letting their families create lasting memories.

To find out more about us, visit www.cityhospice.org.uk.
